

JOHNSON

Leonard Pearl has finished work for Riddle Bros.

R. G. Reynolds of Montpelier was in town Friday.

Geo. Gilmore of Jeffersonville was in town Monday.

Mrs. Arthur Grow who has been seriously ill is much better.

W. G. Jones, the sheriff, has had a telephone put in his house.

Mrs. Brewster is spending a few days with her aunt in Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Warren of Hyde Park were in town Sunday.

Irwin West, who has been working in Fairfield, has returned home.

Mrs. Thomas of this village visited Mrs. Irving Wood the last of the week.

Mrs. Harry Sales has returned from a visit to Beaver with Mrs. M. M. Wall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and son Foster were visitors in Hyde Park Tuesday.

Miss Louise Leland passed Sunday with the Denios at their camp at Lake Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Fancher of Watertown, Mass., are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Rev. F. W. Hazen and family autoed to Craftsbury Tuesday, where they spent the day.

Frank Ward has returned from his vacation, spent in Burlington, with his mother.

Miss Lilla Whipple is again at her work in D. A. Barrows' office after a week's vacation.

Mrs. Bertram Mills returned to the Fanny Allen Hospital last Friday for treatment.

Misses Lois and Vera Davis of Hyde Park were guests Friday of Miss Gertrude Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mosley and son, Winston, returned Friday to their home in Winoski.

Ray Davis of Dixville Notch, N. H., was a guest Friday of his aunt, Mrs. Frank Dodge.

Dr. and Mrs. George Goodwin of Oklahoma came Thursday morning for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCuin and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey McCuin autoed to Barton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baeman of Morrisville were visitors at J. M. Miller's the first of the week.

Miss Frances Wood returned Thursday from South Hero, where she visited Miss Alice McFarland.

Mrs. Clara Patten has gone to Jeffersonville for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Powell.

The W. R. C. will hold its next regular meeting with Mrs. Jennie Holmes, the president, Aug. 22.

George Fillebrown of Philadelphia is a guest of his sister, Mrs. B. S. Fullington, arriving on Monday.

Norman Waterman and family went to Burlington Saturday to visit his brother, John Waterman, and family.

Mrs. Mabel Hebb returned Saturday night from Peacham, where she passed her vacation with her parents.

Miss Nellie Hunt is again in her store after being confined to her room for several months with a broken leg.

Mrs. Addie Mosley has returned from a visit to her son, Percy Mosley, and brother, A. E. Stearns, in Eden.

Norman Scott returned Thursday from Richmond and his cousin, Miss Mina Culver, accompanied him for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Atwell, who have been visiting friends for the past four weeks, have returned to Chicago.

Mrs. Albert Lydston of Boston and Mrs. Fred Lunt of Morrisville spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. F. L. Dodge.

J. C. Munn and daughter, Mrs. Reba Hoisington, and Mrs. I. L. Bailey attended the Munn and Luce reunion at Stowe Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leslie of Lisbon, N. H., came Friday and remained over Sunday with his brother, W. H. Leslie, and family.

A correction—Mrs. Zerkus is from Mt. Auburn, N. Y., and left for her home Tuesday, after visiting her cousin, Mrs. M. W. Baker.

Mrs. Fred Hutchins and two children returned to their home in South Burlington Monday, after visiting her mother, Mrs. S. C. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shavenaugh and Mrs. Mary A. Page were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith at Morristown Corners last Sunday.

Dr. E. H. Scott found one of his span of chestnut horses dead in the pasture the first of the week. It is supposed it was hit by a stray bullet.

Rev. C. D. Pierce and son, David, of Craftsbury spent Monday in town, guests of Mrs. F. L. Holmes. David is going to Camp Abnaki at North Hero.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker, Miss Gladys Baker, Mrs. Geo. Bradley, Mrs. Cowan and Miss Luella Darling autoed to Montpelier Wednesday with Fred Wood.

Dr. E. H. Scott drove to Bakersfield Monday on business. Mrs. Scott's niece, Miss Mina Culver, accompanied him as far as Waterville to visit her aunt, Mrs. Taylor.

H. C. Parker took an automobile party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker, Mrs. M. A. Gonyea, Mrs. George Bradley and Miss Luella Darling, to Burlington last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Baker of Montclair, N. J., who are spending some time with his mother, Mrs. M. W. Baker, went Thursday to South Hero to visit the McFarland's at their camp. His sister, Miss May Baker, went with them to remain a few days.

Congregational Church

The pastor spent the most of his vacation in camp at Ithiel Falls; the first week with the Boy Scouts of the town, the second with his family and a part of the time with the Junior choir of the church.

Union services the next two Sundays at the Congregational church. The subject of the C. E. meeting next Sunday evening will be "Growth: Body, Mind Spirit."

Johnson Grange

At the last meeting of Johnson Grange the 1st and 2nd degrees were worked and a short literary program carried out. A good crowd was present, including five visitors from Gihon Valley Grange. At the next meeting, Aug. 17, the 3rd and 4th degrees will be worked and two new officers are to be installed. Refreshments will be served and a short literary program given. A good time is planned. Everybody come.

Campmeeting at Ithiel Fall

Rev. L. T. Johnson and a party of six arrived Tuesday evening. Campmeeting will commence Friday. Dr. Sloan and wife of Liverpool, Ohio, will assist.

STOWE

Mark Chaffee is in town from Manchester.

Misses Muriel and Marion Pike visited relatives in Essex Junction last week.

W. G. Shaw of Bethel and Ralph Shaw of Boston were visitors here Tuesday.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Hattie Waite were in town Sunday to attend the Old Home Week services.

Miss Alice M. Earle, who has visited her aunt, Mrs. R. H. Maynard, returned to New York Saturday.

Mr. Edwards of White Plains, N. Y., joined his family at the Green Mountain Inn for the week-end.

Miss Bernice Parker of Burlington, is passing the week with Miss Ruth McMahon and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll S. George have begun housekeeping in the Fisher tenement at the lower village.

There were 65 guests at dinner at the Lake Mansfield Trout Club House Sunday and 86 the week before.

Lance Muzzey, who is employed in a drug store in Bellows Falls, has been visiting at W. H. W. H. Felix's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sexton and son, Horace, of Boston are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac A. Foster.

Mrs. W. W. Houston and children, Ardy and Maurice, passed the week-end with Mrs. C. B. Boyce in Montpelier.

Theodore Mayo was indisposed last week. Theodore took oil of wormwood when he meant to take cough syrup.

Mrs. O. H. Edson, who has been receiving treatment at the Fanny Allen Hospital, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stafford and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Macuteban spent a few days in camp at Green River last week.

Mrs. A. A. Emery and Miss Cummings of St. Albans are passing the week with Mrs. Emery's father, S. W. Barrows, and other friends.

Mrs. F. W. Blenus of Worcester, Mass., who was called here by Mr. Barrow's death, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McMahon.

Mrs. E. Barrows and son, Oswald, of New York, who were called here by the death of Mr. Barrows, are passing a few days at "Seven Springs."

C. C. Drown, superintendent of schools in Medford, Mass., formerly principal of Stowe high school, was a guest over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Watts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bigelow and children and their guest, Miss Azella Goodell of Morrisville, who have been visitors at Lake Mansfield, returned to Middlesex Saturday.

Stowe Military Band, assisted by several players from Montpelier, gave a pleasing open air concert Tuesday evening. The band also furnished music for the Natch picnic today.

A. L. Gale conveyed a party to Burlington Saturday, including Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, to visit Mrs. H. H. Cobb at the Mary Fletcher Hospital.

Mrs. E. B. Gale gave a card party at her home on West Branch Friday evening in honor of Marshall Johnson of Springfield, Mass., who has been a guest at the Gale home for two weeks.

Mrs. A. N. Camp of Morrisville, who motored to Stowe Sunday, was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Nellie Watts, and her little daughter, Rebecca, who have visited Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fuller.

At the meeting of Mansfield Mountain Grange Saturday it was voted not to have any special grange day during Old Home Week. All wishing conveyance to Smugglers' Notch on the Old Home Week "Notch day," should notify the secretary, A. C. Oakes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McMahon and family, Miss Mildred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burt and family, Miss Mary Stone, Misses Majorie and Rebecca Burt and their guests, Miss Henry of Basking Ride, N. J., and Miss Brown of Winchendon, Mass., motored Sunday to Greensboro, where they enjoyed a picnic.

The Unity Church parlor will be kept as a rest room on Thursday, the Old Home Week field day. The track events for the field day will include a 100-yard dash for boys and men, 50-yard dash for girls, running broad jump for boys and men; field sports, tug-of-war, race, obstruction race, peanut race, sack race.

About eight o'clock Saturday evening Herbert Ayers was coming down Maple street with young ladies as passengers in his car when the light from an approaching limousine proved so blinding that he did not see the hydrant beside the street and struck it with his car. Miss Myra Campbell and Miss Thayer were thrown out and shaken up, and the car was considerably injured.

One of the most pleasing features of the Old Home Week exercises will be the entertainment at the Auditorium Friday evening, when "Daddy-Long-Legs" will be given by Marian Clarke, impersonator. Miss Clarke, who is very favorably known in this vicinity, will be assisted by Madeline Randall, esthetic dancer; Mrs. L. B. Bamforth, contralto; Mrs. H. W. Barrows, soprano, and Miss Marjorie Gates, pianist. This will be a chance to help the Old Home Week committee, financially.

Guests at "Seven Springs," where Miss A. M. Allen of New York conducts a summer boarding house, are: Miss Pettibone, Mrs. Barrows and son, Oswald Barrows, Mrs. John L. Martin, Miss Catherine Lewis, Miss Catherine Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Abendroth of New York, Mrs. Donnelly of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Jewett of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Bradford of Montreal. Miss Ogden, principal of Bishop Hopkins Hall in Burlington, and Miss Anthony were guests at Seven Springs over Sunday, and Bishop Bliss is expected to be there next week.

The 16th annual Old Home Week in Stowe began very auspiciously with a union service at the auditorium of the Akeley Memorial building Sunday morning. The "Vermont Sunday" service prepared by the Greater Vermont association was carried out, the Rev. E. L. Goddard of the Methodist Episcopal Church being in charge. A union choir led the singing of the hymns with George A. Burnham at the piano. Rollo G. Reynolds, secretary of the State board of education, gave an interesting and appropriate address, taking the home, its development and influence for his subject and paying tribute to the beautiful scenery and other home settings in Stowe, where he was from 1912 to 1914, principal of the high school. There was a large attendance.

Congregational Church

Rev. E. L. Baker of North Weare, N. H., will preach next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. Sunday school at the close of the morning service.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:30 p. m.; subject, "Growth:—Body, Mind, Spirit."

North Wolcott

Max Woodmansee was at home Sunday.

Albion Stoddard is working for Mrs. Alice Knight.

Fred Gates' people of Eden were at B. W. Bailey's Sunday.

Ernest Andrews was a recent business visitor in Morrisville.

Ray and Ernest Stoddard visited at Ben Denton's Sunday.

Willis Churchill and family were recent visitors in Morristown.

J. B. Woodmansee has purchased of J. H. Clark of Hardwick a Ford touring car.

J. E. Wheeler and wife visited her daughter, in Hardwick the first of the week.

E. J. Clark and family of Hardwick were Sunday visitors at the home of his father.

Miss Mildred Belmont visited at A. E. Woodmansee's a few days the first of the week.

Bernard Woodmansee was a business visitor in Bloomfield Friday and Saturday, making the trip with Carl Jones in his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carruth of Athol, Mass., have been visiting at J. E. Wheeler's. Mrs. Carruth and Mrs. Wheeler are sisters and haven't met before for ten years.

Cady's Falls

Earl Whittemore has sold his place to Jos. Collette.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Calkins are in camp at Caspian Lake.

Miss Nell Eaton of Chicago is visiting at R. L. Fairbank's.

Harry Dubuque and family have moved to Mr. Kidder's.

Mrs. Alphonse Boyce was a caller at Cash Hurlbut's the first of the week.

W. Smith and wife of Essex Junction, visited his sister, Mrs. W. S. Newcomb, recently.

Everett and Frank Calkins and families and Lorenzo Calkins spent Sunday at Greensboro.

Mrs. Clarence Sinclair and Mrs. Jos. Waite from the Street visited Mrs. Geo. Mudgett recently.

Mrs. E. K. Seaver and daughter, Dorothy, attended the Munn reunion at Stowe last Thursday.

Garfield Road

Miss Ruby Barrows of Stowe visited friends here over Sunday.

Miss Mary Scribner of Morrisville recently visited at her home here.

Elva Kimberley and wife of Elmore visited at Charles Jones' Sunday.

James Jones and family were visitors at Mrs. A. C. Marshall's Sunday.

Treffon Pratt and family of Stowe recently visited his sister, Mrs. Geo. Fairfield.

Chautauqua Week Begins

Friday

Words of praise come to us from every place where these events have been held during the past week. The people all like them. They are bigger and better than expected, etc., etc.

Buy season tickets, as they cost only $1.50 for the entire course of 10 entertainments.

The following is the program:

FIRST DAY

AFTERNOON

Opening Concert. American Quartet Organization of the Junior Chautauqua.

EVENING

Musical Entertainment and Cartoons. American Quartet and Clayton Conrad. Address: "The Community Conscience" by Lee Francis Lybarger of the Philadelphia Bar.

SECOND DAY

AFTERNOON

Song Recital. Godfrey O'Hara. Famous Irish Tenor and Song Writer. Character Sketches and Impersonations. Wing Tabor Wetmore.

EVENING

Popular Entertainment. O'Hara and Wetmore. A Psychic Melange. Arthur Delroy. President New York Psychic Club.

THIRD DAY

AFTERNOON

Songs of the Southland—Favorites of the 60's (with banjo and piano accompaniment). Dunbar's Southern Singers.

EVENING

Musical Prelude. Dunbar's Southern Singers. Lecture Recital: "Shakespeare and His Plays" by Frederick Warde. Distinguished Shakespearean Actor.

FOURTH DAY

AFTERNOON

Popular Concert. Victor's Florentine Band. Lecture: "A Living of a Life" by Dr. Euclid B. Rogers.

EVENING

Full Grand Concert. Victor's Florentine Band and Neapolitan Troubadours.

FIFTH DAY

AFTERNOON

Violin Recital. Ole Theobaldi, assisted by Florence Alice Stitzel, Operatic Soprano, and Mlle. Helen Keleere, Piano Virtuoso.

EVENING

Song Recital. Florence Alice Stitzel. Lecture: "An Inside View of Mexico" by Andre Tridon, War Correspondent.

WOLCOTT

Bert Balch is working for U. M. Martin.

Charlie Bridge has purchased a Ford car.

D. M. Hartson of Shelburne is working for Henry King.

A. W. Richardson of Hardwick was in town Saturday.

Miss Leafe King has returned home from Craftsbury.

Mrs. Florence King of Roxbury is visiting friends in town.

R. M. Hubbell was a business visitor in Morristown Tuesday.

Ermine Boardman was a visitor in Morristown Saturday.

H. F. and H. I. Randall were visitors in Burlington Tuesday.

L. C. Udall was a business visitor in Stowe the first of the week.

Mrs. Allen Pike and son of Craftsbury are guests at Henry King's.

Mrs. Emily Champeau of Morrisville spent Sunday at L. Valley's.

E. C. Gould and wife of Morristown were guests at A. W. Foster's Sunday.

S. Randall of Springfield, Mass., has been the recent guest of his brother here.

Mrs. H. A. Parker and daughter, Mirabelle, were visitors in Hardwick Tuesday.

A. W. Powers has purchased his father's farm in Woodbury and moved to the same.

Mrs. Clara Moody is at home from Morrisville, suffering from an abscess on her face.

L. C. Udall and wife and Gordon Bickford and wife were visitors in Orleans Sunday.

Wm. Randall of Newbury has been a recent visitor at the home of Herbert Randall.

Mrs. Sarah Conant and Mrs. L. C. Udall were visitors in Hardwick the last of the week.

Mrs. Clyde Little and children of East Hardwick were guests at John Kelley's over Sunday.

The little son of S. N. Norris, who has been ill of pneumonia and whooping cough, is convalescing.

Mrs. E. C. King and son, Allen, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests of her sister, Mrs. A. W. Foster.

V. W. Dodge and wife and G. H. Davis and wife were in Burlington Thursday.

Mrs. Susan Shepard, who has been visiting her sister, Mary Spiller, has returned to her home in Stowe.

Horace Woodmansee with Peter Golden's team broke through the bridge near the Arbuckle shop, on the road to "Twin Cliff" farm, with a load of sawdust. The drop was nearly 12 feet, but the team and Mr. Woodmansee escaped without serious injury, although wearing some bruises.

West Hill

Mr. Simpson of Wolcott was a guest at Louie Martin's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chase of Johnson visited at Silas Chase's Sunday.

Earl Chaffee of Irasburg visited his sister, Mrs. Alfred Tracy, Sunday.

Steve Coan is exhibiting a basket of potatoes, three of which will weigh 2½ pounds.

George Best of Connecticut visited his father, John Best, Thursday. The latter is in very poor health.

Walter Witham of Knowlton, P. Q., was in town Sunday. He was accompanied by Henry Terrill and son, Walter, who will spend the week there.

How's your subscription?

EDEN

Mrs. Fannie Brown visited Mrs. John Smith Saturday.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at the Corners church.

Adelbert Lock has purchased the Ellisworth farm near the Corners.

The Ellisworth auction was largely attended and the goods sold well.

Merrill Atwell enjoyed a week's outing among friends at St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lamphere took a carriage drive through Orleans county last week.

The bridge that crosses the Gihon brook near the Branch school house, collapsed Saturday night.

Stillman Stone of Lunenburg, Mass., is visiting his brother, Elbridge Stone, and other relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and two daughters were week-end visitors at George Emery's in Johnson.

Elbridge Stone, Orrell Stone, F. P. Collins and Lee Whitney attended the Democratic County Convention at Hyde Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Parkhurst entertained his brother and wife and four children of Craftsbury Saturday and Sunday.

At the C. E. meeting there was a large attendance. Freda Whittemore was the leader. Miss Emma Hinds sang a solo.

W. J. Atwell and wife, accompanied by Alison Rogers and wife, were visitors at Leonard Sylvester's in Johnson Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Blake and Mrs. Ruth Blake Hier and son, Wilson, were visitors at L. A. Gould's in Elmore Saturday. Mrs. Hier remained for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Gould.

Elmore

Delbert Richardson is working in Walden.

Mrs. Bert Merriam of Bellows Falls is visiting at Frank Marriam's.

Mrs. Joseph Muzzy of Johnson has been visiting at C. W. Ward's.

Miss Genie Ward of Morrisville spent the week-end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde French of Hardwick visited at Will Kaiser's Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley Luther and Beryl of North Wolcott visited in town last week.

Mrs. Harry F. Smith and children have returned home, after an extended visit in New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Ruth Robinson and daughter, Kate Robinson, of Burlington visited at Elmer Robinson's recently.

Ithiel Falls

Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Davis passed